CAFCI SHOWCASES LOCAL TALENTS

CAFCI's annual youth talent show held on July 23, 2011 at the Royal Palm Beach Cultural Center provided the Western communities with an evening to remember. Thanks to the master of ceremony, Paul Boyd, my husband, who kept the show moving, and provided information to the audience about CAFCI and its contribution to the community.

The show featured 25 performances consisting of about 28 individuals. The performers, who ranged in age from 6 to 17, showcased their talent in singing, dancing and playing instruments such as the guitar, piano, violin. (continued on last page)

While some were showcasing their talent for the first time on our stage, others were experienced performers. With a generous donation earmarked for "winners", we presented three of the performers with gifts as "winners" of the talent show. All the performers were "winners" and received trophies and a certificate for performing in the event. We had a full house in attendance supporting and cheering on the performers throughout the evening.

For those who missed the awesome event, be sure to visit CAFCI's website at www.cafcipbc.org to view the slide show of the evening. Thanks to Woody Brown for taking the pictures and putting the slide show together. Thanks to Denise of the Town Crier and Carol for covering the event. Without the talent show committee we would not have had the great show. Thanks to Junette Powell, Genieve White, Nova Brown, Shirley Morrison, Yvonne Richardson, Marjorie Smikle, Ernie Garvey, Winsom Martin, Elaine Ealy, and Paulette Cameron (who was unable to attend the show), Shauna Simms, Michael Simms, Robert Simms, Lauriston Simms, Rhonda Ferrin-Davis, Jordan Davis, Brandon Boyd, Demi-Ann Barnett and Carlene who helped in the evenings' festivities.

Looking forward to seeing you at the next talent show.

Nadine White-Boyd, Talent Show Chairperson
